Dear Laura,

Thank you for all of your assistance in creating such a wonderful event for our company. Everything was flawless! We received a flood of compliments from guests about how wonderful the food was, but more importantly, the impeccable service. Kiki and his team were pros in every sense of the word. At one point he even left his post to hand deliver an hors d'oeuvres tray to a guest whose car became stuck in the sand. Again, everything was seamless -- from the initial stages of planning to the superb execution. Thank you again!

Sincerely,
Amanda Brotherton
